Arrested for Armed Robbery

When:

Friday, May 13, 2016

A third suspect involved in the Little Caesars Pizza armed robbery that occurred April 24, 2016 has been arrested.

22-year-old Calvin White Junior turned himself into the J. Reuben Long Detention Center in Conway yesterday. This is where Bluffton detectives took custody of him this morning.

"We have been looking for White for a few weeks now. The US Marshall's Task Forces out of Savannah, Georgia and Conway, South Carolina were instrumental in helping us track White down. We are very grateful for their assistance," said Bluffton Police Chief Joey Reynolds.

20-year-old Leroy Frost and 20-year-old Deon Miller have already been arrested for their part in the robbery.

On Sunday, April 24, 2016, it is believed White and Miller walked into the restaurant and held two employees at gun point before taking cash from the vault. The two men then left on foot and were seen getting into a green four-door vehicle that Frost is believed to have been driving.

If anyone has additional information about the robbery, please contact the Bluffton Police Department at (843) 706-4560.
